

AFS GLOBAL STEM ACCELERATORS 2023

What is AFS Global STEM Accelerators?

Full-scholarships, 12-week interactive online certificate program for girls around the world, ages 15-17.5, with a focus on sustainability and positive social impact, empowering girls to become changemakers in their communities.

Program Components

During this virtual program, students will engage with the content in a variety of ways through synchronous and asynchronous activities:

What's included in your experience?

Interactive content modules with video animations video lectures, quizzes and animated slides

Online forum to connect with others & reflect on your ideas

Virtual live sessions to interact with global peers

AFS Qualified Facilitator to mentor and guide you

Requirements

- Citizen of Indonesia
- Born 01 October 2005 through 01 September 2008
- Ability to participate fully, both online and in a classroom setting, in a program conducted entirely in English
- Interest in STEM, sustainability, and global competencies
- Curiosity and willingness to interact with diverse global peers and explore new cultures
- A computer, smartphone or other digital device to access the virtual program content
- An integrated webcam and microphone for participation in online dialogue sessions
- Stable internet or wifi connection
- Talented young women from all backgrounds who reflect the diversity of populations around the world, particularly underrepresented populations, and students with high financial need

Enroll Now!

<https://afs.org/global-stem/accelerators>

Applications for Cohort 2
are open:

until 25 June 2023

Further information:

globalstem@afs.org